Company Profile

We've chosen to do just one thing. So we can be the best.

Maikii is the leading European manufacturer of USB flash drives and all types of memory sticks. The key was to concentrate the core business on just one product, USB flash drives, a decision that in very little time has enabled the company to firmly establish itself in this sector.

Maikii is a young and dynamic company, present on the market since 2008 but with extensive experience in import-export.

By directly managing its own production facilities, Maikii is able to meet all USB flash drive requests, whether simple or more specific, whether for promotional or other uses.

Our sales department accompanies each customer step by step, from the initial request to the creation of a graphic sample of the customised product and finally product delivery.

The staff at our production plants closely monitor every production phase and perform constant quality controls, guaranteeing the high quality and reliability of your products.
